Joana is a curious and imaginative girl. But one day, she asks herself: “Am I special?” In search of this answer, she begins to observe the world around her and realizes that, even though she is not as tall as a giraffe or as strong as a bear, she has something very valuable: the ability to help and make a difference in the lives of others. With a light and engaging narrative, “I am special?” invites children to discover that each person, in their own way, has a unique shine. A charming book about empathy, self-knowledge and the beauty of small gestures.

Long ago, when the world was young,
Tortoise's shell wasn't cracked and ugly as it is now.
It was smooth and shiny and shone like a pebble in the sunlight.
All the birds of the world loved Tortoise's shell.
They polished it with their wings until it was so smooth they could see their reflections in it.
Then they would sit fluffing their feathers to make sure every one was in place.

A jovem fadinha que respondia pela alcunha de Inspiração, era delicada e muito alegre. Vivia em um lindo jardim de uma bruxinha muito simpática, que era a sua melhor amiga.

Todos os dias, pela manhã, ela se banhava com gotículas de orvalho das folhas e colhia cogumelos vermelhos fresquinhos para as poções mágicas da sua amiga.

ABOUT ROBBIE

Robbie Gonçalves is a self-taught and curious traditional Brazilian artist.

Graduated in Bachelor of Nautical Sciences from Merchant Marine Officer Training School, she worked for 14 years as a Merchant Marine Nautical Officer on board different types of ships.

Never stopping dreaming, after 10 years sailing, she graduated in Children's Book Illustration from London Art College, receiving the Certificate of Merit from the Distance Learning Colleges Association.

After that, she read lots and lots of books about Children's Books Illustration and Writing and participated on infinite illustrations courses and mentorships.

"I consider myself an imaginative illustrator & writer, passionate about creating dreamlike scenarios and characters using watercolors, gouache and other traditional art supplies, seeking inspiration from Fairy Tales, poetry and Life itself. I believe that our experiences made us exactly who we are, so why not use it as inspiration?

However, feelings speak louder and, as art is a reflection of the artist's soul, you can find part of my soul in some of my works. If you find it, be kind, offer him a smile or a cup of tea... and talk a little about life."

Robbie is Carioca, born and raised in Rio de Janeiro, but she's currently based on Santa Catarina, Brasil.
